

6 reasons why you should

SEND YOUR EMPLOYEE TO JSCONF BUDAPEST 2019 THIS SEPTEMBER

Tickets starting from €245 + VAT

- Get them a healthy dose of learning material.
In today's hype-driven culture, it's hard to figure out what your next steps in innovation should be. Our curated lineup will guide your employees through the dense world of JS development to find the optimal learning path for the near future.
- Don't let your coders burn out.
Attending a conference gives your people inspiration, fills them with fresh new ideas to jump into Q4 with a ton of energy. (Make sure to ask them which talk they are most excited about, and why is it relevant for the company.)
- Did we mention the ticket prices?
A JSConfBP ticket costs €311 (incl. VAT) and a combo ticket for both CSSConfBP and JSConfBP is €469 (incl. VAT).
- It's only for two days.
Three, if you're interested in CSSConfBP as well.
- Find your next employee or client.
JSConfBP provides the perfect opportunity for networking. In case your product is targeted at tech industry players, be it the CI tool of the future or an ML-powered cloud solution, be sure to raise awareness of your brand at our venue. We have some sponsor spots if you want to go all in (contact us)!
- Free Workshops!
Every ticket holder to JSConf Budapest can pick a free workshop, getting hands-on knowledge on one of these topics: Integration-driven-development, GraphQL on client & server, Twilio communication APIs, JAMStack webshop, Serverless GraphQL services
